

DELHI AGRA JAIPUR || Golden Triangle

Tour Itinerary 5 nights 6 days

Day 01 : Arrival Delhi

Meeting and Assistance on Arrival at Delhi Airport and transfer to hotel, if time allows enjoy city tour covering - India Gate (War Memorial Arch), Lakshmi Narayan Temple (a modern Hindu Temple), also drive past President's House, Parliament street, and Government Secretariat Buildings. Overnight stay in Delhi hotel.

Delhi : The capital city of the Federal Republic of India. It is one of India's fastest growing cities. It has sprawled over the West Bank of the river Yamuna, straddling the river. The city has two distinct parts, Old Delhi & New Delhi. Old Delhi is centered on the Red Fort built by Emperor Shah Jahan between 1636 & 1658.

The streets of Old Delhi are narrow & bustling. The beauty & serenity lies inside the courts of the main buildings. Delhi has some of the finest museums of the country. Its boutiques and shopping arcades offer access to a wealth of traditional and contemporary crafts, from all over the country. New Delhi was proclaimed the capital of India by the British architect Sir Edwin Lutyens (1869-1944), & is tree-lined & spacious.

Day 02 : Delhi

Morning tour of Delhi visiting Jama Masjid , Red Fort, Gandhi memorial (The memoir of father of the nation). Afternoon visit Qutub Minar built by Qutub-ud-Din Aibek in 1199, &Humayun's Tomb. Overnight stay in Delhi hotel.

Day 03: Delhi - Agra (195kms/5hr)

Early morning after breakfast drive to Agra. On arrival check in at hotel. Proceed for sightseeing. Agra Fort - This Fort, built by the successive contribution of three Mughal generations – Akbar, Jehangir and Shah Jahan – still fascinates the entire world with its majestic glory. More like a city inside, the fort was built to ful fill the military purpose which spreads on the banks of Yamuna enclosing a humongous area of 3 km radius. The Agra Fort gained its actual elegance, lavishness and royalty of a palace at the time of Emperor Shah Jahan. The Fort also serves as a vantage point to view the Taj Mahal from a distance and it is believed that the Emperor Shah Jahan spent his days in exile watching the Taj from here. If time allows visit colourful bazzars night return back to the Hotel. Overnight stay in Agra hotel.

Agra : Two great Mughal monarchs, Akbar and Shah Jahan, transformed the little village of Agra into a befitting second capital of the Mughal Empire - giving it the name Dar-ul-Khilafat {seat of the Emperor}. Today a visitor to Agra is caught up in a world of contrasting edifices, of red sandstone and white marble, narrow galleys and quaint buggies, and that irresistible charm that this favourite city of the Mughals still retains. It is not surprising, that modern Agra still reflects its Mughal heritage most conspicuously. A walk down the narrow bustling streets of the city will introduce the visitor to the wafting aroma of Mughlai cuisine.

Day 04: Agra : Jaipur (240kms/6hr)

Early morning visit Taj Mahal - a poem written in white marble, the most extravagant monument ever built for love. Taj Mahal – One of the eight wonders of the world. The Taj Mahal is often described as "the epitome of love" & "a monument of immeasurable beauty". Taj Mahal was built by Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan to enshrine the remains of his beloved wife Begum Mumtaz Mahal which manifested the immortal love between the two. The purity of the white marble, the exquisite ornamentation, precious gemstones used and its picturesque location, all make this monument gain a place amongst the most magnificent buildings of the world. You can stay on to view the monument changing its mood with the soft light of the setting sun. The Taj Mahal remains closed on Fridays. Later transfer to the hotel for breakfast and checkout direct drive to Jaipur on arrival check in the hotel if time allows evenings go to Choki Dhani - An ethnic village resort and enjoy Rajasthani Food served in Traditional style enjoying folk dances and music (At your own). Overnight stay in Jaipur hotel.

Jaipur : Popularly known as the Pink City, is the capital of Rajasthan state, the city that once had been the capital of the royalty, now serves as the capital city of Rajasthan. The very structure of Jaipur resembles the taste of the Rajputs and the Royal family. Jaipur is the former capital of the princely state of Jaipur. Founded in 1727 by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II, the ruler of Amber, the city today has a population of more than 5 million residents.

His Highness Sawai Bhawani Singh Bahadur (born 1931) is the current titular Maharaja of Jaipur. Jaipur is the first planned city of India, located in the desert lands of Rajasthan. In the present date, Jaipur is the major business centre for the natives of Rajasthan with all requisites of a metropolitan city. The city of Jaipur, painted in pink, grasp the appreciation of every visitor. One can see that hoary charm still alive in the avenues of Jaipur.

Day 05 : Jaipur

Morning after breakfast visit Amber Fort, and enjoy elephant ride (At your own). Visit world famous Astrological Observatory, City Palace - Museums of precious and semi - precious stones, Typical Rajasthani handicrafts & free for shopping. Overnight stay in Jaipur hotel.

Day 06 : Jaipur - Delhi (265kms/6hr)

Morning after breakfast checkout from the hotel and drive to Delhi to catch your flight for next destination. Tour End.